2nd Draft

People around the world own different kinds of cell phones that fit their bills and their needs. The best choice iPhone 4 due to several excellent features. For example, the text messaging allows users to send a message and forward it to any groups available in the phone using other apps, such as LINE, WhatsApp or BBM. The second feature is single-calling and multi-calling. Users can call more than two people at the same time. For instance, they would call their parents, and then, they would have a family conversation. The third feature is sending pictures. Users are able to take a picture and send it to whoever they wish. They even can post it in their social network. The fourth feature is browsing the Internet. When users find a wi-fi spot, they can surf the Internet for free. They can check your email and read e-book. All in all, iPhone 4 makes life easier.
